Who Are They?

Those pictures across the way on page 6 and those to the right on this page are not the unwanted, just the unknown. As we move along on our combat crew feature, we need to identify these crews.

Any clues we have are shown in the identification line underneath each picture.

It is our sincere hope that we will get names, or even just one name, of a person in each of these crews. Once we have a starting point for identification we will try to find one or more men who can help us put names with the faces.

Please contact the Secretary with ideas as to who these men may be, and we'll go from there.
